CONTENT WARNING: As we present "Mean Girls Junior," please know we've carefully considered the content within this adaptation. Our choice to stay true to the original play includes adult themes, reflecting our confidence in the maturity and capability of our young actors. We believe this experience will enrich their artistic growth and understanding. We appreciate your understanding as we explore these complex themes together, trusting in the strength and openness of our community.

Thank you to all of our generous donors for fully supporting this program, all our volunteers and creatives, and our community ensemble families.
